Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God~ January 1

"Redeemed by reason of the merits of her Son and united to Him by a close and indissoluble tie, she is endowed with the high office and dignity of being the Mother of the Son of God, by which account she is also the beloved daughter of the Father and the temple of the Holy Spirit. Because of this gift of sublime grace she far surpasses all creatures, both in heaven and on earth. At the same time, however, because she belongs to the offspring of Adam she is one with all those who are to be saved."

How does our veneration of Mary and the saints relate to our worship of God?

"The honor we give to God alone is properly called adoration, the highest honor we can give. The honor we give to Mary and the saints is called veneration. Proper veneration of the saints does not interfere with the worship due to God, but rather fosters it...Even as the Mother of the Savior, Mary has a place that is in every way subordinate to and dependent upon that of her Son, who is the mediator between God and humanity." ~usccb.org

"Epiphany" means manifestation. What the Church celebrates today is the manifestation of our Lord to the whole world; after being made known to the shepherds of Bethlehem, He is revealed to the Magi who have come from the East to adore Him. Christian tradition has seen, in the magi, the first fruits of the Gentiles; they lead in their wake all the peoples of the earth, and thus the Epiphany is an affirmation of universal salvation... The figures of the wise men have reached Bethlehem, completing the nativity scene."

Customs around the world:

Spanish: Jesus in the nativity scene is given a small gold crown and regal robe. The wise men have arrived on the scene.

German: On the vigil, three young men dressed in colorful robes and a star-bearer go "star caroling" from house to house singing.

Jordan: The blessing of water is done in reminiscence of Jesus' baptism. The blessed water is used for blessing homes.

Central Europe: Pastors bless chalk for each family to inscribe the names of the three Magi over their doorways. 20 + C + M + B + 2021 ~catholicculture

Evangelization Corner ~Kristin Molitor

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord. Like the Magi, we too have encountered Jesus in the manger this Christmas. In this last week of the Christmas season, let's kneel before the creche and ponder how our lives are different because of Christmas.

Next week, the Liturgical Calendar will turn back to ordinary time. Will we allow the Holy Infant we encountered at Christmas to be the center of our "ordinary life?"

Below is a reflection by Fr. Mark Toups, a priest from the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, to help us this week as we begin to prepare for Ordinary time.

"The temptation is to go back to your life as it was before Christmas. The temptation is to sentimentalize the "holidays" and to leave the reality of Christmas behind. Once Christmas happened, Mary could not ever go back to "real life." Joseph could never go back to "real life." Even the Magi, who had not yet met Jesus, knew that their "real life" would never be the same. Listen to me: you cannot "go back" to your life as it was before Christmas. Mary's "real life" was forever changed by Christ. The infant was reality. Jesus was real life. The baby was now the center of Mary's life. Joseph's "real life" was forever changed by Christ. He was the center of Joseph's life. The Magi are journeying. What they will find will change their lives forever too.

Your life is different. Your life has been changed. Christmas isn't about a simple baby. Christmas is about "the desire for God written in the human heart." Christmas is about your "desire for the one who calls [you] into existence. "

Today, we, like the Magi, must make the choice to stay on the pilgrimage. Today, we must make the life-altering decision that we will no longer be the center of our life.

Merry Christmas. Everyday...forever...Merry Christmas. Are you ready to make Christ the center of your life?"

The Prayer List was refreshed in November. Please notify the office if you would like to be added or taken off the Prayer List or if you are in need of special prayers.

News & Events

Advent begins our liturgical new year but we celebrate the new calendar year often making a New Year's resolution. This year consider making your consecration to the heart of St. Joseph

What does it mean to consecrate yourself to St. Joseph? Well, it basically means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely into his paternal care so that he can help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God. The person who consecrates himself to St. Joseph wants to be as close to their spiritual father as possible, to the point of resembling him in virtue and holiness. Saint Joseph, in turn, will give those consecrated to him his undivided attention, protection, and guidance.

If you have already consecrated yourself to the Virgin Mary, can you be consecrated to St. Joseph, as well? The answer is a resounding "Yes!" God desires that all children be committed to the care of a mother and a father. You are not a member of a single-parent spiritual family. Mary is your spiritual mother, and St. Joseph is your spiritual father. The spiritual fatherhood of St. Joseph is extremely important for your spiritual growth. Total consecration to Mary is not diminished by total consecration to St. Joseph. Mary wants you to consecrate yourself to St. Joseph! Jesus wants you to consecrate yourself to St. Joseph! Everything you have given to Jesus and Mary can also be given to St. Joseph. The hearts of Jesus, Mary, and St. Joseph are one.

Prayer to Receive a New Bishop

Praise to you, Lord our God, our eternal shepherd and guide. In your faithfulness, grant to the Diocese of Saint Cloud a shepherd whose watchful care and kindly zeal will continue the good work of his predecessors. In your love for us, give us a shepherd who will lead us in being Christ's heart of mercy, voice of hope, and hands of justice. Help him to fill our minds and hearts with the truth of the Gospel, the power of the sacraments, and the desire to build up your holy Church. We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Jesus is with us!

The Holdingford Lions Community Appreciation Breakfast will be on January 17th from 9:00 a.m. until noon. FREE-take out only. Drive to City Hall and Lions will hand it out to you. Pancakes, sausage, eggs, orange juice and applesauce will be served.

WATCH ON FORMED:

FORMED Now! Special Reflections In these episodes, professors from the Augustine Institute will lead us in reflections throughout the season from December 22nd through January 11th.

In this, the year of St. Joseph as announced by Pope Francis, the gift of Plenary indulgences will be granted through a decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary by mandate of the Holy Father. An Indulgence can be given by saying the this prayer to St. Joseph (below) following the usual requirements (Sacramental Confession, Eucharistic Communion and prayer for the pope's intentions).

Prayer to St. Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph,
do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us
every contagion of error and corrupting influence;
O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us
by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness,
and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.
Amen.
