The Pilgrimage to Indianapolis Continues...

The journey to Indianapolis, the Eucharistic Procession to the Eucharistic Revival Conference July 17th – 21st, is about halfway this week. I can only imagine what it will be like when, at a coordinated time, Jesus will be processed in from all four corners of the nation to kick off the congress. I can only imagine all the stories, transformations, and experiences, that have taken place since the procession (northern route) passed through our diocese.

Some have asked if the new church is going to affect the St. Columbkille or Immaculate Conception parishes. The new church is not intended to affect the St. Columbkille or Immaculate Conception buildings. Pray for the success of the project!!
