

Announcements for the Week of 1/5/2026

Welcome back and Merry Christmas! We are still in the Christmas Season!

This week is the Pageant at All Saints. Those who are part of the pageant please get dressed and meet in the church. Be dressing by 6:30pm upstairs by 6:45pm please. K-8 students who are not in this pageant will need to meet in the basement at 6:30pm. 9th & 10th Grade students will need to meet in the Cryroom at 6:30pm.

Mary, Lambs, Stars, & Angels please wear light colored clothing. It will be warm so please also make sure to wear light weight clothing.

Kings please wear all black colored clothing.

Joseph, Inn Keeper, Kings spokesperson, Little Drummer Boy & Shepherds please wear jeans and t-shirts in whites/browns/ greys/blacks depending on what the colors of the costume you chose.

Backstage Crew please where things that you can get a little dirty as the manger will be a bit dusty/dirty to move and if you would like to have some work type gloves that would be wonderful! (Gavin T., Gavin E., Aubrey B., Makenna F.)

Camels please wear light weight clothing it will be warm.

Camel leaders please wear colors that coordinate with the red colored server cassocks. (Gowns that the servers wear.)

Narrators, Greeters, & Choir please dress up some.

6th graders please remember you will be helping with the reception/hospitality- serving, taking drinks to tables for young children and the elderly, and cleaning tables after the pageant.

7th graders please remember you will be helping clean up the stage/altar area. This includes bringing the manger and the inn to the basement to be put in the storage area.

8th-10th please remember you will be helping to put the bins back up in the choir loft. This will inclued the camels.

If there are any questions please text or call me between 9:30am & 12:45pm Mon-Wed and after 6:00pm Mon-Wed. I probably won't be checking my email a lot so a call or text will get my attention faster (320) 292-1575. Thank you!
