Stewardship Fairs

The Holy Spirit has given you talents to further His kingdom and benefit your parish community!

Come see where God is calling you to serve at one of our

Stewardship Fairs:

All Saints- St. Mary's -Sept. 20th

Immaculate Conception- Sept. 27th

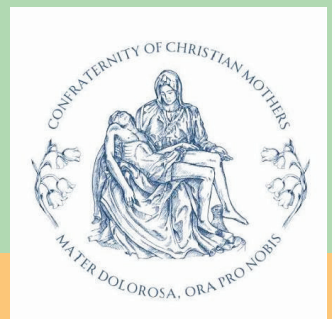

St. Columbkille- Oct. 3rd

The fairs will take place after Mass at their respective parishes, with booths showcasing the many jobs that run and maintain our churches.

Snacks will be provided by the Christian Women.

We all should be giving somewhere.
We are not called to simply watch from the sidelines.

Fellowship and Stewardship Sunday:

As the leaves turn and the air grows crisp, September gathers us together in fellowship to share the bountiful harvests God has given us.

Please joins us on September 20th for our first Fellowship after Mass, featuring rolls, donuts, fruit, coffee, juice, and crafts for the children.

God has also called us to share in the stewardship that keeps our ministries running smoothly. Be sure to check out the booths to see where your heart is calling you to serve.

Devote Time,

Share Talent,

Give Treasure,

A way of life!

New Evangelization Corner

JP Misheff

Greetings, Two Rivers parishioners! I'm super excited to serve your communities as the new evangelization and youth minister for this coming academic year. I'm a 2nd year graduate student at nearby Saint John's University and truly honored for the opportunity to work with you all as part of my educational and spiritual formation. I'm originally from Ohio — from an area that reminds me a lot of this one — but for the last 25 years I've lived all over the world: 10 years in New York City, 10 years in northern and southern California in much smaller towns, and a year and some change living in England, where I taught high school-aged students from all around the world at a small boarding school an hour south of London. The Holy Spirit has certainly guided me into plenty of adventures! I'm a relatively recent convert to Catholicism, where I've been made abundantly assured that in the Church I've found my true home in the world. No matter where I go in the world, Christ's love represented in the Mass is the anchor. I love that the Church thinks and operates in centuries, not moments. It doesn't get caught up in fads and quickly passing movements. It was built on a sturdy foundation we call Tradition. There's no surer, clearer, more compassionate home a child of God could ever hope to come across. I hope to share that same passion and enthusiasm in all the work I do here. You'll see me often singing in the choir at Immaculate Conception in St Anna. St Augustine was RIGHT when he said a prayer that is sung counts as two! One of my missions here is to try to get more of you in the pews to sing along during Mass. There's no shame in it, in fact not much delights the Lord more than to hear His children making a joyful noise. Anyway, I'll be dropping weekly installments here in the bulletin on various subjects — maybe we'll make one all about singing and just how much it pleases the Lord! At any rate, please feel free to hit me up at jmisheff001@csbsju.edu with any questions or comments or come find me after Mass to talk about anything. I'm looking forward to creating more opportunities to praise and worship with you throughout this coming academic year!
