Scripture Verse of the Week

For who ever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?
From row Goapel: Matthew 16: 21-27

Welcome & Welcome Back

Hello everyone! I am excited for this upcoming year! I will be sending out weekly newsletters like this. In this column I will have the menu for the light suppers and announcements.

Each week I will also have upcoming events, the Saints of the days, a scripture verse, and the next Sundays reading for you as a family to read together before the next Sunday.

This week I chose the Scripture of the week from this next Sunday's Gospel. Please read through the gospel and this part of the gospel together. Then talk about what does this mean.

I will be putting in a little teaching or challenge each week that will go along with the chosen Scripture of the week. This will start next week.

There will be Saint chosen each week to expand on. in each news letter. A wonderful place to find out more about the Saints of the Week is <https://www.catholic.org/saints/sofd.php>.

Lastly, expect a link to a youtube video on catholic teaching explained in wonderful ways.

A Message from Katrina

Please sign up for remind and be checking the announcements on our Webpage. If you have not recieved the Welcome back letter please look on line it is posted.

I am also extending the registration deadline. to September 4th I will need all families to register online this year. I am trying to update the records accurately and this is less for you to have to remember to turn in.

For this week's catholic teaching explained I wanted to introduce you to Marie Mazzanti you can find her on youtube and she is also the founder of wonder & reason.co. The youtube link amd giving you this week is for parents and older students. Marie talks about how catholic parents do not need to do more devotions and why. Check it out here:
